PREFACE

In the year 1930, John D. Risser became interested in compiling a record of the descendants of his grandfather, Abraham Martin. After many inquiries and much correspondence, he had printed in a booklet of 32 pages a record of 427 descendants.

In the year of 1940, he again gathered additional information and had printed a book of 48 pages, containing the record of 636 descendants.

In the year of 1953, approximately one year after the death of John D. Risser, the authors of this book undertook to gather the latest information concerning the descendants of Abraham Martin. We are indebted to the previous efforts of John D. Risser and the cooperation of many relatives and friends who have contributed to the accumulation of this information. The family tree has grown much larger and more scattered in the last thirteen years. There are now approximately 1235 direct descendants listed in this 1953 Edition.

Much effort was made and much care taken to gather this information correctly and completely. Errors may be found and information lacking in a few instances, due to incorrect information given to the authors, or through oversight in recopying dates and names.

In respect to the heritage received and maintained by our fathers we submit this brief history for the benefit of their posterity,

A grandson; Irvin S. Martin

A great grandson; Allen H. Martin
Route 6, Hagerstown, Md.

From the history of the ancestors of Abraham Martin by the late M. G. Weaver, of New Holland, Pa., from their emigration from Switzerland to this country, to the generations which heads this work, the following information was taken:

That in the year 1728, 3 brothers, David, Henry, and Jacob Martin, emigrated from Switzerland to America, and settled in the Weaverland district, Lancaster County, Pa. After they had established homes for themselves, their father, Andrew Martin, was also brought over and cared for among them until his death.

Christian

His son David had a son George (2nd generation) who a son Abraham (3rd generation) who begat a son Abraham (4th generation) who was ordained a minister to the Groffdale Church near New Holland, Pa., and who died at the age of 90 years, 3 months, 4 days, and is buried in the Weaverland cemetery. He had a son Abraham (5th generation) who is the progenitor of the following descendants.

Taken from the book published in May, 1940 by, John D. Risser.

Later in the year of 1963 some thought it would be interesting to revise the Abraham Martin Book, which was done in the year of 1953, by a grandson Irvin S. Martin, and a great grandson Allen H. Martin.

With their information and the help of many relatives and many friends Miss Louise Martin, a great, great granddaughter and Mrs. Noah V. Martin, a great granddaughter of Abraham Martin, decided to revise the latest addition of the Abraham Martin Book which was last printed in the year of 1953.

Time and effort was put into these pages. Errors will be found, some from wrong information and some from the authors. We ask your forbearance. We take this time to thank each one who so kindly helped gather these names, and dates.

We are indeed grateful for our heritage handed down from our fathers to the benefits of their posterity.

A great granddaughter,

Mrs. Noah V. Martin

A great, great granddaughter,

Miss Louise Martin

REMINISCENCE:—MAN

Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble. He cometh forth like a flower, and is soon cut down; he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not. Job 14: 1-2. As for man, his days are as grass: as the flower of the field, so he flourisheth. For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more. But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear Him, and his righteousness unto children's children; to such as keep His covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them. Psalms 103: 15-18. For the ways of man are before the eyes of the Lord, and he pondereth all his doings. Proverbs 5: 21. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. 11 Cor. 5: 10.

Fifth Generation

Abraham Martin, of the Fifth Generation, was born in Salisbury Township, Lancaster Co., Pa., near Hersheys Church, August 26, 1828; married Susanna, daughter of Jonas Burkholder, September 6, 1849. She was born November 8, 1828. To their union were born 3 sons as follows:

Jonas, born September 3, 1850.

Twin sons, stillborn November 15, 1851.

Susanna (mother) died November 17, 1851; death resulted from the birth of the twins. She is buried in the old Groffdale cemetery, at the center drive, half way back on the right side; her gravestone reads as follows:

Susanna Martin.

On December 24, 1852 Abraham married Barbara Wenger, who was born January 30, 1829.

While living in Lancaster Co. Abraham farmed and operated a feed mill where he did grinding for other farmers of that community. As his family grew he decided that his small farm and mill business produced too small an income. With prices of land being high, he came to Washington Co., Md., and tried to buy a farm. Without success he went back to Lancaster Co., only to come back the following year, 1867 and rented a farm with intention of buying as soon as possible. He farmed the John Horst farm, now known as the Jacob E. Martin (Great grandson's) farm, west of Maugansville, near Reiff Mennonite Church for one year. In the year 1868 he bought a farm from Samuel Middlekauff, which consisted of 196 acres; located east of Route 11, 2 miles south of the Mason-Dixon line. At this time he went back to Lancaster Co. and sold his farm. He returned home to Washington Co., Md., by train with the cash money in his boots. The price set for the farm was either $19,600 dollars in gold or $26,000 dollars in "green backs". He settled with green money because gold was not available at that time. Later he bought a few more acres on the east side of his farm joining the Paradise Mennonite Church road.

Abraham later divided his farm, building a set of buildings, at the east side in 1880-1883. This part he sold to his son Joseph, later Eli H. bought the farm, then sold the farm to his son Allen H. Martin, great grandson of Abraham. The original homestead went to his son Isaac, and is now owned and farmed by his grandson Amos E. Martin. In his later years Abraham built a set of buildings on part of the original tract, along Route 11, now known as the Mrs. Howard Shank farm.

Some time after Abraham's oldest sons became of age he also bought a flour mill at Bridgeport, Md. along the Cavetown pike. This mill the boys operated for some years and later it was sold. The mill stood on the property more recently owned by a Dr. Johnson.

In Respect To The Late John D. Risser

Ten years have elapsed since the last recording of Abraham Martin's descendents, since the year 1828.

"And thus does life go on, until death accomplishes the catastrophe in silence, takes the worn frame within his hand, and as if it were a dried up scroll, crumbles it in his grasp to ashes. The monuments of kingdoms too shall disappear, still the globe shall move, still the stars shall burn; still the sun shall paint its colors on the day, and its colors on the year, what then is the individual or what even is the race in the sublime recurrings of time? Years, Centuries, Circles, are nothing to these." —Henry Giles.

Those who now are bringing this record up to date, express their appreciation for the help they received from the ones who compiled the last record.

Since he was acquainted with almost every individual mentioned herein, a request comes from the composers of this issue that a brief biography follows his departure.

JOHN D. RISSER 1882 - 1952

Born near Maugansville, Maryland. He lost his father at the age of seven months. His stepfather (Henry H. Baer) was always referred to as giving he and others true parental oversight.

As he came to maturity he had high aspirations, but his ventures were guided by a sensitive conscience.

His occupation was farming as long as health permitted.

In the year 1920 he was ordained minister at the Millers Church, and assumed the charge with a sober, and intense aspect.

He was stricken to a hospital experience in 1929, which rendered him almost helpless for about a year.

The goodness of One all powerful enabled him for many years to earnestly contend for the faith dear to him.

His orthodox standards were solidated in many fields where the need for such teachings was felt.

In spare time he worked in his cabinet shop at home until his last fragment of strength escaped.

Opinion is gathered generally that he was always a close observer, that duties whether great or small were momentous to him, and that secular attractions were deemed less important.

He had a deep appreciation for many things in life, but always rehearsed their relation to eternal values.
